

AL DEMAREE ENTERS THE HALL OF FAME

Philly Twirler Wins Two Games from the Pirates in a Single Afternoon.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 21.—Demaree pitched both games of the double header against Pittsburgh Wednesday and in each contest was victorious. The scores were 7 to 0 and 3 to 2. He allowed seven hits in the first game and nine in the second. All the scoring in the first game was done by the Phillies in the sixth inning. After the first two batters were retired Moran's men started a rally that did not end until seven runs were scored.

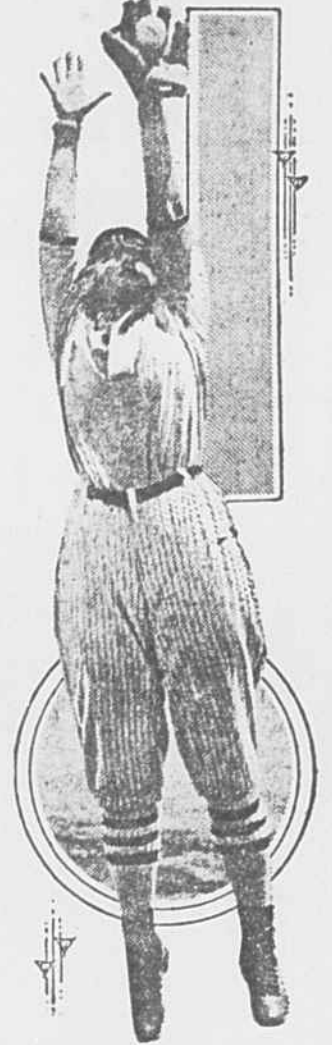

The second game was bitterly fought, the Pirates tying the score in the ninth on pinch hitter W. Wagner's single. The Phillies won out in the last half when Mamaux made a wild pitch, allowing Whitted to score. The score, first game—R. H. E. Pittsburgh.....000 000 000—7 2 Philadelphia.....000 007 00—3 11

In the Wake of the News

By Ring W. Lardner

(Saturday.)

Several times we wished that Mr. Comiskey's slaves were a bit less superstitious. While they were scoring three runs in the first inning we stood just inside the entrance door. Thereafter whenever they were at bat we had to stand in the same spot. During Boston's innings we were permitted to sit down, but Boston's innings were generally too brief to give us a good rest.

Jack Fournier's name did not appear in the box score, but none worked harder than Jack. If the throat specialists of the great Northwest charge as do our own, they will separate the Frenchman from the bulk of his world's series split before they have rebuilt his voice.

Dutch Leonard was the recipient of most of Jack's compliments. "Keep throwing, Dutch," he shouted, after Weaver, E. Collins and Jackson had landed solidly on what the eminent lefthander served them in the first inning. "If you keep at it long enough, you're liable to get one as far as the catcher."

And when the Sox had scored their fifth run, in the third, and were still pounding the southpaw viciously: "It's Carrigan's fault, Dutch. You'd have warmed up harder if he'd told you you were going to pitch a double header today."

"Dutch, you can go home for the rest of the season after you've pitched these three games this afternoon." And to Carrigan— "Take off your mask and protector, Bill. We won't let anything get past."

When they tossed out a new ball with Jackson at bat in the third or fourth— "You'll never get real well acquainted with that one, Dutch. It is going on a long trip."

Leonard was finally removed and Jimmy Walsh took his turn at bat. He was called out on three straight strikes without offering at any of them. "Jimmy, you'll get fat if you don't take your exercise," yelled Fournier. "Whatever you do, Jim, don't soil that bat. Next time you come up, leave it in the bag, and you won't be tempted."

The betting was that Leonard lacked the gall to make his way to the clubhouse through our exit. But Dutch fooled us. "Well, Dutch," said Fournier, as the beaten pitcher paused a moment in front of the bench, "you certainly fooled them today. What did you have that made them all look so foolish? I'll bet your outfield hated to see you quit. Lefty Williams wants you to stay in a while longer. He hasn't made a base hit yet."

Dutch gave him a terrible look and started through the door. "I'm afraid your bath'll be cold, Dutch," was Jack's last shot. "We've had it ready for you a long time."

TWENTY

Candidates for the West Virginia Business College Team Begin to Work Out.

Twenty candidates for the West Virginia Business College football team reported to Coach Pacey yesterday afternoon at Norwood park and were put through two hours of rather hard work for the first evening, consisting of falling on the ball, punting, passing, and some light tackling; while the backfield men were given some pointers on side-stepping and stiff arming. Although most of the men were somewhat sore this morning, they all signified their intention of being out for more this afternoon.

VERY ACTIVE

Are Greenbrier Republicans and Success of the Party is Certain.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, Sept. 21.—Greenbrier county Republicans are more active than usual. The recent visit of "Joe" almes has done a world of good and the workers are working. In fact, every Republican in this part of the county has taken off his coat and is doing his part to bring about a Republican victory this fall. If all the districts do as well by the G. O. P. ticket as this one does there is absolutely no danger of Democratic success.

Constipation the Father of Many Ills. Of the numerous ills that affect humanity a large share start with constipation. Keep your bowels regular and they may be avoided. When a laxative is needed take Chamberlain's Tablets. They not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strengthen digestion. Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement

PREPARE FOR THIS.

"When we contemplate industrial and commercial conditions we see that we are living in a fool's paradise. The temporary prosperity to which our opponents point has been created by the abnormal conditions incident to the war. With the end of the war there will be the new conditions determined by a new Europe. Millions of men in the trenches will then return to work. The energies of each of the now belligerent nations, highly trained, will then be turned to production."—Charles E. Hughes.

FLASHES FROM HUGHES' DETROIT TALKS.

AMERICAN RIGHTS.

"No one could successfully present to an American audience that an American citizen's rights stopped with the coast line."

"There is not a particle of militarism in my composition, but there is Americanism in its place, and if elected I am going to see that American rights are protected."

LABOR.

"The workingman is not asking anything he should not have. All he wants is a square deal."

"No such thing as prosperity exists for just one class in America, unless it exists for all."

"The Republican party does not stand for the prosperity produced by the war, but for a prosperity produced by sound American policies, and these are what we propose to have."

PREPAREDNESS.

"Do not let us get this country into a low patriotic plane so that we are content with disesteem, with the scoff of the world."

"I am an American citizen, ought to be the proudest title in the world."

CIVIL SERVICE.

"We had in the coast and geodetic survey an eminent scientist. He was displaced to make room for an excellent stock breeder."

"It is the most unworthy thing an administration can do to take public business and pay political debts with it."

BURSTING A BUBBLE.

The Democrats who sought a criticism from Dr. Charles W. Eliot of Mr. Hughes' acceptance of the presidential nomination got one, but not the kind they wanted. Dr. Eliot was heartless. Instead of helping the Democrats keep the supreme court bubble in the air he pricked it with a pin when in his letter he said of Mr. Hughes' action:

"Most Americans will think that, having tried the life of a governor and the life of a justice of the supreme court, he had a right to give effect to his preference for political service."

Mr. Lansing is credited with the belief that the case against Great Britain on account of the blacklist is so weak that it ought not to be pressed. What, then, did Mr. Polk mean when he called the attention of the British government, "in the gravest terms," to "the many serious consequences" to be apprehended if it were not withdrawn?

REPUBLICANS

Of Mercer County Are Working in Harmonious Accord for Party Success.

PRINCETON, Sept. 21.—Mercer county has lined up its Republicans remarkably well during the last few weeks and many are out campaigning for the ticket who had not taken an active part in that kind of real work for several years.

The county ticket is considered a strong one and every candidate is making hay while the sun is up. Better Republican spirit has never been evidenced here than has been evidenced since Judge Robinson was here recently and talked about adherence to principles of Republicanism and to consider measures and not men.

SALEM PYTHIANS TO CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY

Of Their Lodge in An Elaborate Way with Feature Programs.

SALEM, Sept. 21.—Salem Lodge, No. 70, Knights of Pythias, is nearing the twenty-fifth anniversary of its organization which will fall on September 28. The members have perfected plans to fittingly celebrate the event with feature programs on the occasion covering several days. The first will be a sermon before the lodge and public at the Baptist church next Sunday at 3 p. m. by the Rev. John Taylor Hickman of the Methodist Episcopal church. The members of the local lodge and visiting Knights, together with the ladies' auxiliary branch of the order, the Pythian Sisters, will assemble at the Knights of Pythias hall and march to the church in a body.

Tuesday night at the regular weekly meeting of the lodge a record-breaking attendance of members is sure to be present, and matters of vital interest to the local lodge will be considered. Thursday night will be the anniversary date proper and the scheduled program provides for a session of the lodge to confer veterans' jewels, an elaborate banquet and reminiscences by members, and addresses by grand lodge officers. The list of veteran members include the following: William E. Leonard, Dr. E. A. Wilson, Charles E. Raynolds, Professor Esle F. Randolph, E. B. Robinson and Aaron Gaines. The invited grand lodge officers who are expected to be present are Grand Chancellor Thomas Roy Dille, of Morgantown; Grand Vice Chancellor Judge James W. Robinson, of Clarksburg; Grand Keeper of Records Samuel W. Montgomery, of Kingwood; Grand Master at Arms W. B. Cutright, of Buckhannon; and Oscar C. Wilt, of Clarksburg, member of the Pythian Home board.

Salem has a membership of 193 and is growing. It occupies one of the finest furnished halls in the city, on the entire third floor of the Central building, and its regular meeting time is each Tuesday night.

WIRT COUNTY

No Longer in the Doubtful Column as Result of Wilson's Blunders.

ELIZABETH, Sept. 21.—It is the sincere belief here that Wirt county will come out of the doubtful column November 7. The Republicans are organized and conditions are ripe for triumph for that party. The organization has been perfected and there are no petty jealousies which have been characteristic of former campaigns. Wirt countians are displeased with the Democratic national administration and there may be expected a switch from the Democratic ticket in every district.
